

Returning to the Office after Positive/Suspected Positive COVID -19

All confirmed and suspected cases should be communicated to Realogy with required information (name, location, details of situation). It is our responsibility to protect the identity of positive and suspected positive employees and independent sales agents.

Agents

AgentHotline@realogy.com

Employees

EmergencyAction@realogy.com

- You have tested COVID-19 positive
- You have symptoms & have not been tested for COVID-19
- You have symptoms & waiting for COVID-19 test results

- You have been exposed to someone who is verified COVID-19 positive
- You have been exposed to someone who is having COVID-19 symptoms and waiting for COVID-19 test results
- You live with someone who is COVID-19 positive

NOTE- This guidance is based on CDC recommendations that were last updated as of 7/20/20. These recommendations are subject to change and should be consulted before returning to the office.

You are COVID-19 Positive

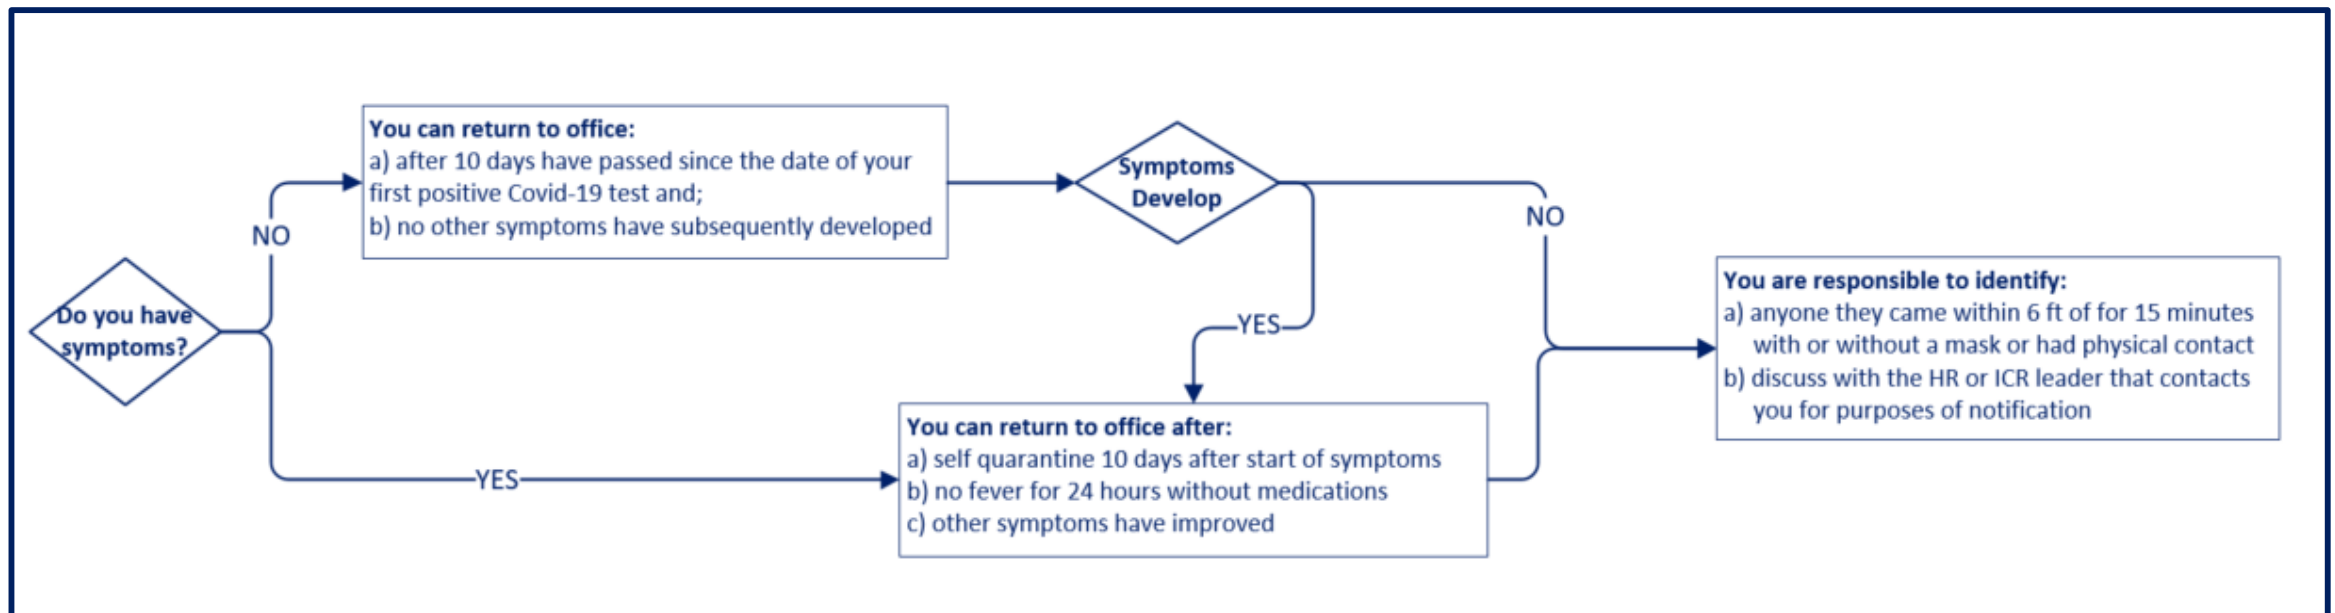

All confirmed and suspected cases should be communicated to Realogy with required information (name, location, details of situation). It is our responsibility to protect the identity of positive and suspected positive employees and independent sales agents.

Agents

AgentHotline@realogy.com

Employees

EmergencyAction@realogy.com

NOTE- This guidance is based on CDC recommendations that were last updated as of 7/20/20. These recommendations are subject to change and should be consulted before returning to the office.

Suspect* You May Be COVID-19 Positive

Suspect is defined as someone who is symptomatic and not tested or symptomatic and waiting for test results

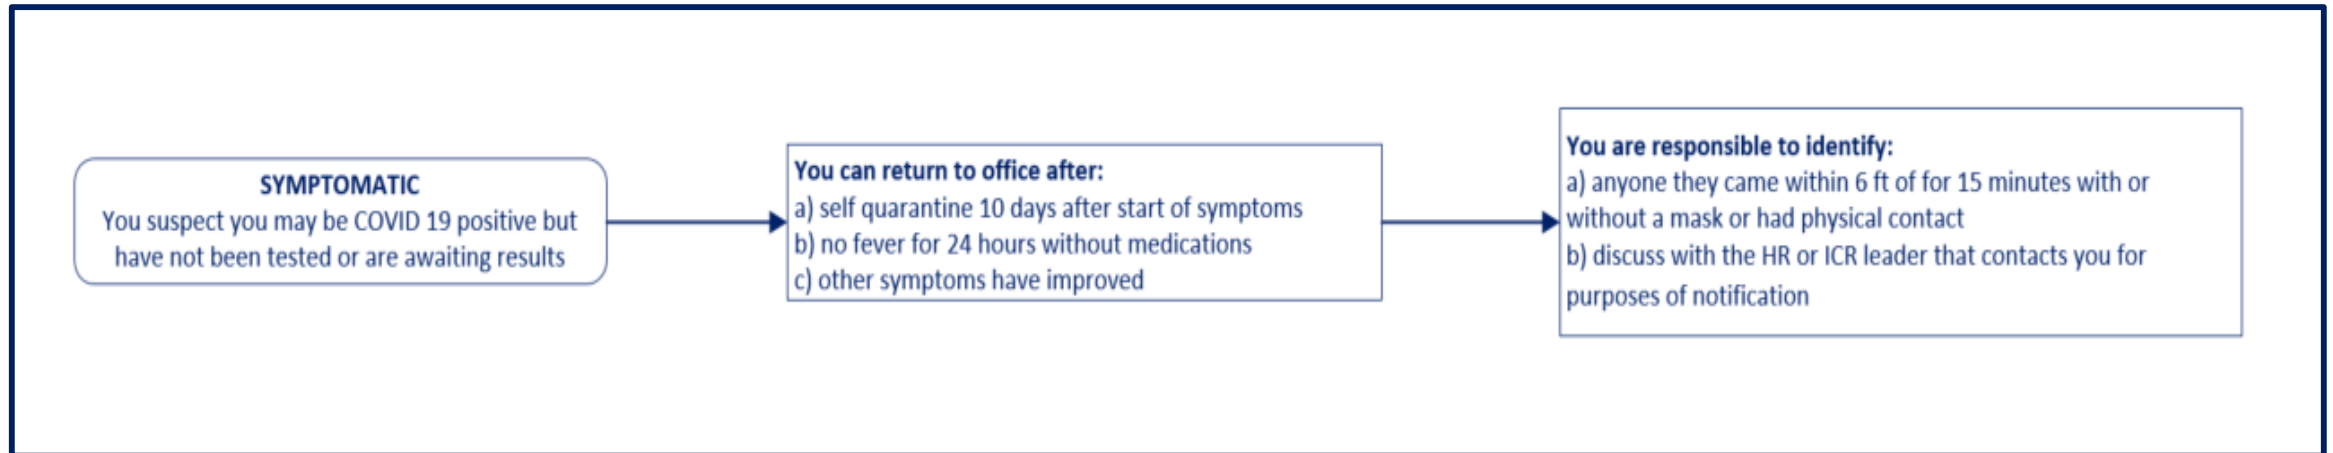

All confirmed and suspected cases should be communicated to Realogy with required information (name, location, details of situation). It is our responsibility to protect the identity of positive and suspected positive employees and independent sales agents.

Agents

AgentHotline@realogy.com

Employees

EmergencyAction@realogy.com

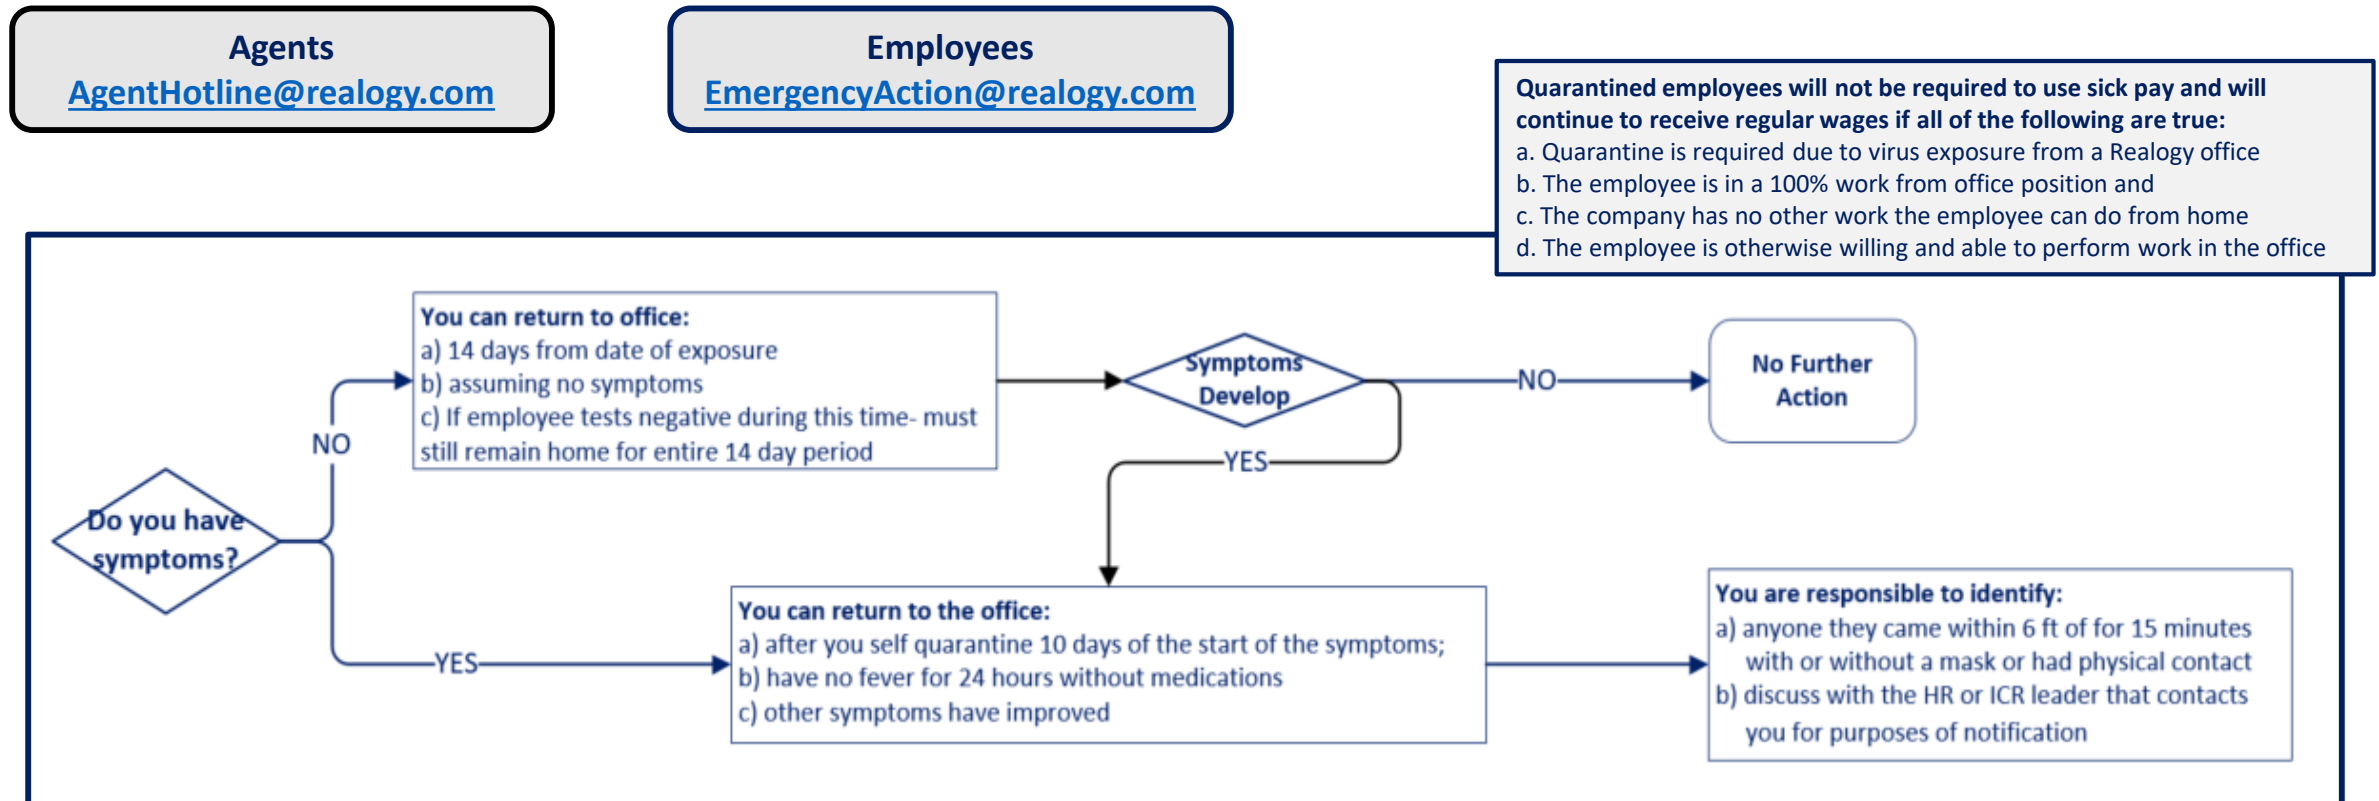

NOTE- This guidance is based on CDC recommendations that were last updated as of 7/20/20. These recommendations are subject to change and should be consulted before returning to the office.

Exposed to COVID-19 Positive Person

Exposed is defined as close contact within 6 feet for at least 15 minutes with or without a mask or had physical contact.

All confirmed and suspected cases should be communicated to Realogy with required information (name, location, details of situation). It is our responsibility to protect the identity of positive and suspected positive employees and independent sales agents.

NOTE- This guidance is based on CDC recommendations that were last updated as of 7/20/20. These recommendations are subject to change and should be consulted before returning to the office.

Exposed to someone who is symptomatic and not COVID-19 tested or symptomatic and waiting for COVID-19 test results

Exposed is defined as close contact within 6 feet for at least 15 minutes with or without a mask or had physical contact.

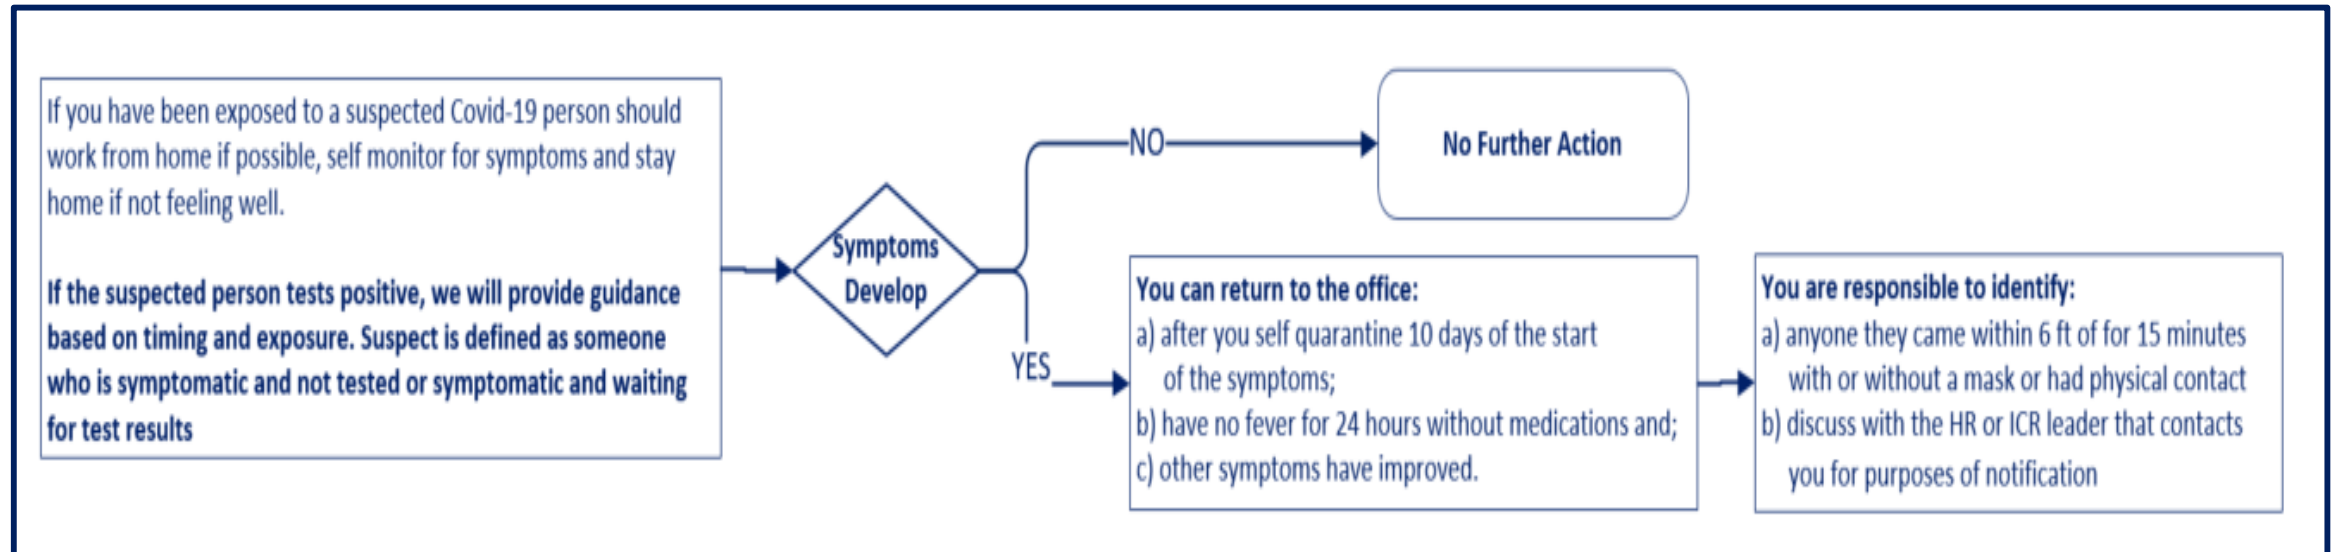

All confirmed and suspected cases should be communicated to Realogy with required information (name, location, details of situation). It is our responsibility to protect the identity of positive and suspected positive employees and independent sales agents.

Agents

AgentHotline@realogy.com

Employees

EmergencyAction@realogy.com

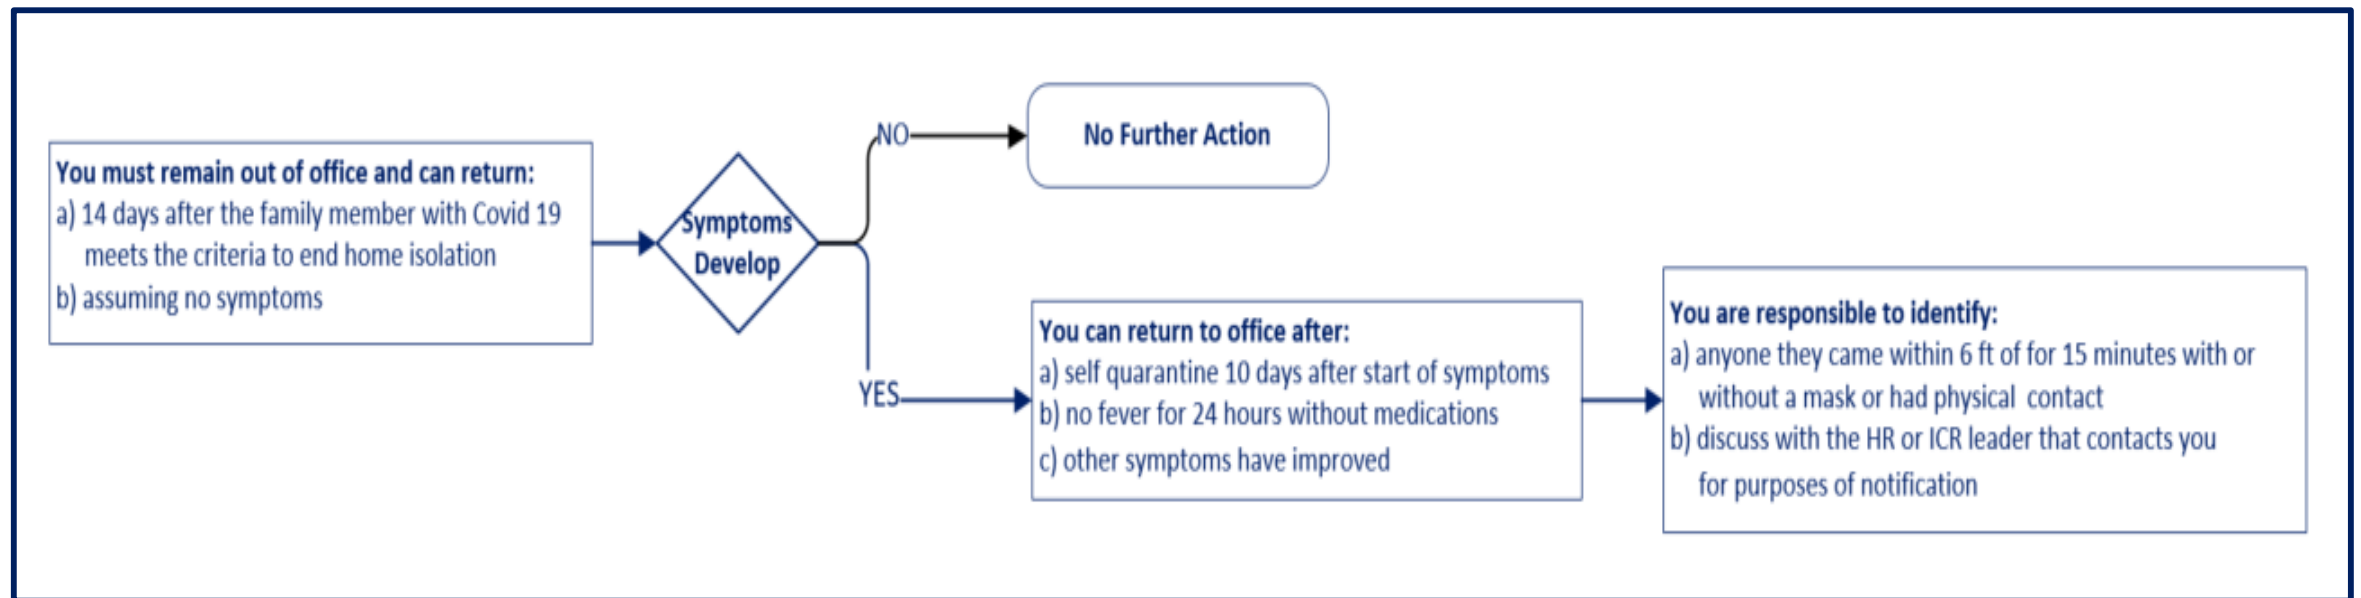

NOTE- This guidance is based on CDC recommendations that were last updated as of 7/20/20. These recommendations are subject to change and should be consulted before returning to the office.

Live with a COVID-19 Positive Person

All confirmed and suspected cases should be communicated to Realogy with required information (name, location, details of situation). It is our responsibility to protect the identity of positive and suspected positive employees and independent sales agents.

Agents
AgentHotline@realogy.com

Employees
EmergencyAction@realogy.com

NOTE- This guidance is based on CDC recommendations that were last updated as of 7/20/20. These recommendations are subject to change and should be consulted before returning to the office.